

2019 FLLG Lace Day News by Holly Van Sciver

We are pleased to announce our 39th Annual Ithaca Lace Day course and lecture offerings. Our theme this year is “Fans of Lace.” We are in the process of compiling the registration packet, which will go out in late June. If you know anyone who would like to receive a packet, that might not be on our mailing list, please contact Cathy Whalen at, cathywhalen189@gmail.com or (607) 844-8304. Don’t forget to book your room early! Call the Clarion Inn, 2310 N Triphammer Rd, Ithaca, NY 14850 directly at (607) 257-3100 and ask for one of the rooms being held for the “Finger Lakes Lace Guild”. Happy lacing and see you at Lace Day!

39th Annual Ithaca Lace Day

Sponsored by the Finger Lakes Lace Guild

Friday, Saturday, Sunday, & Monday October 11, 12, 13 & 14th, 2019

Featured Speakers

Devon Thein

Lace, Not Lace: The Backstory

and

Kate Picone

Bringing Russian (Kukar) Lace Traditions to the United States

Workshops, demonstrations, lace exhibits, lectures, do-it-yourself corner, lace and bobbin prizes, banquet dinner, and sales!

Workshops

Bedfordshire Lace, Beginning and Continuing Louise West
Design and Make Lace using Russian Techniques, Kate Picone

First and Next Steps in Aemilia Ars and

Frisado de Valladolid Needle Lace

Carolyn Wetzel

Bobbin Made Jewelry from Metal Threads, Martina Wolter-Kampmann

Binche Lace - Beginning and Continuing, Kumiko Nakazaki

Bucks Point and Honiton, Holly Van Sciver

's Gravenmoerse and Torchon, Logarithmic and Traditional

Susie Johnson

Introduction To Bobbin Lace, Jean Jagendorf

For more information call or write:

Holly Van Sciver

130 Cascadilla Park, Ithaca, NY 14850

(607) 277-0498 or vsblace@twcny.rr.com

<http://www.vansciverbobbinlace.com>